

Astound Cleaning leads the industry standards in cleaning technology and safety. As a founding pillar in the Astound Facilities Group proposition, we take pride in our work with close attention to detail and a friendly professional approach, alongside a dedicated customer quality control programme that keeps us ahead of the competition in this highly competitive space. We are proud of our flagship services with the Astound Standard guaranteed.

Why choose us for your window cleaning?

At Astound Window Cleaning we believe you need to go that extra length, literally, as our poles can reach heights of 72ft equivalent to nine storeys high. We invest in the best and latest equipment not only to give you the best and latest product offerings but also for health and safety. Having equipment that can reach these heights means there is no additional expense for dangerous crane hire or expensive additional health and safety cover. We spend time researching the market and making sure we are ahead in the window cleaning arena making sure your business and your windows get the best treatment from Astound.

is caused to your building as may occur with traditional ladders or cradles.

We heat our water to 75°C using LPG gas

The best treatment from Astound includes the heating of the water to 75°C using LPG gas. This means your windows and frames get cleaner and dry faster with no streaking - the perfect finish.

Our Company and Vans are 100% Carbon Neutral

We believe that companies who take care of the environment will in time perform better than those who don't. From day one, our company has offset all of its carbon emissions.

We work closely with a charity providing new water wells in Africa

We don't use chemicals and only pure water to clean your windows, and therefore we wanted to work with a growing charity that could make a real difference to people's lives. We chose to work with a scheme that provides water wells in Africa. To find out more information about this, please visit our website.

Free 30 minute on-site demonstration of our service

We believe we have one of the most advanced cleaning systems and setups available in the industry today. We would really like to demonstrate this to you with a free clean on the windows of your choice.

What do we do that is different?

Reaching Heights Safely

72ft poles give safe, low cost access up to nine storeys high. No need for dangerous crane hire or expensive Health & Safety cover, we use the very latest in carbon fibre poles which allow us to work at astounding heights with amazing results. Pole system cleaning also ensures no damage
